Tennessee Extension Master Gardener

EASTERN REGION TOUR

JUNE 5-6, 2025

Register by May 1!

Brushy Mountain Tour

Fort Southwest Point

Roane County Park

Tennessee Naturescapes

UT Arboretum

Helping Tennessee Grow Better Communities

Eastern Region Tour Schedule

June 5th Afternoon Tours	Optional tours/activities to connect with others or sight-see on your own! The two options below will include meeting up with other Extension Master Gardeners to carpool, and all the details about logistics will be emailed to those interested. 1) Brushy Mountain Distillery and Penitentiary Tour ($22 admission) OR 2) Haw Ridge Guided Wildflower Tour Lists of the many on your own activities will be sent to all registrants

Doubletree Hotel Block- to 5/1 Registration Link

June 6th	Location	Activity
8:00-8:30 loading 8:30-9:00 travel	Oak Ridge Doubletree 215 S Illinois Ave, Oak Ridge, TN 37830	We'll have light snacks and time to visit before we load the bus for an 8:30 am departure. Cars can be left at the hotel through the day.
9:00-10:30	Fort Southwest Point (soon to be a TN State Park)	Facilitated and self guided tours of site history from native American to revolutionary war plus the native plant garden
10:30 - 10:45 travel 10:45 -12:15 tour/eat	Roane County Park Demonstration Garden (map will be provided)	Facilitated tour of the different areas of the demonstration garden Buffet lunch at picnic shelter
12:15-12:45 travel 12:45 - 2:45 sessions/ tour 3:00	UT Arboretum- Opening and closing sessions in auditorium with 4 stations all within walking distance (map will be provided)	1:00-1:30 Opening Presentations 1:30-3:00 Time to tour and visit educational stations 1) Native Meadows with Michelle Campanis 2) Rain Garden with Dr. Andrea Ludwig 3) Native plants with Don Williams 4) Residential trees and screens at holly collection 3:00 Closing and afternoon refreshments

Registration Information- Online Registration Link

Registration $40 prior to May 1st and $50 after May 1st if space remains

This fee covers:

Round trip (hotel to hotel) seat on a charter bus on June 6th

Lunch at Roane County Park

Afternoon refreshments at the UT Arboretum